

A COURSE ON TEACHING AND TRAINING OF STUDENTS AND ADULTS (TTSA)

Learning is an evolving and never ending process. With this firm belief and that we need to consciously and constantly enhance and upgrade our knowledge and skills, Mayang has designed this certificate course for you.

The scope and depth of the course are geared towards those students and even working adults to become professional teachers and trainers in the field of teaching and training. We have even gone a step further by providing you the opportunities to become trainers in this field.

This unique Mayang's course on Teaching and Training of Students And Adults will prepare them with highly acclaimed approaches towards professional teaching and training.

On successful completion of this course, students will be awarded the Institut Mayang Certificate of Completion.

Course Benefits:

Students will -

- Acquire a better understanding of the national educational goals and their roles in achieving them
- Learn to explain and apply teaching and learning principles
- Identify, select, design and develop teaching and/or training methods for students and adults
- Understand the importance of communication as a process and the skills involved
- Learn the effective presentation techniques
- Be in a better position to become a professional in the teaching and training industry

Course Highlights:

Teaching and Training of Students and Adults: Education- Then, Now and Future: educational goals; principles of teaching; Teaching and Training in Schools: Teaching students and the role of teachers in schools; ICT in schools and classroom management;

Teaching and Training Adults: Adult teaching and training; creative teaching/training; distance learning; training in the marketplace, training of trainers, lifelong learning; Communication and Human Development: communication and presentation skills, professionalism in schools and workplace, advancement for teachers and trainers.